

Noble Conduct of a Negro.—The Augusta Chronicle and Sentinel relates a case of negro unselfishness that is worthy of record. A colored man, named Dan Turner, had been convicted by a magistrate for stealing a dog, and sentenced to two months on the chain-gang, when the following occurred:

When the justice had announced the conviction of the accused, a negro man, about twenty-five years of age, had sentenced him to two months' hard labor on the chain-gang, and the erier had adjourned the court, the performances being over, a young negro, apparently not more than twenty years old, stepped up to the lawyer who had defended his brother, and whispered something in his ear. The attorney smiled, muttered a few words in reply, and then the negro turned to the justice, and the following singular conversation ensued:

Negro—"Judge, ain't there no way you can fix it so that I can go on the chain-gang in place of Dan?"

The Justice—"Is the prisoner a relation of yours?"

Negro—"I'm his brother, an I want for to work on his time, cause he's older dan me, and have a wife, and his wife is sick. I ain't married, an I am willing to go on the gang in his place, and let him stay wid his wife."

The Justice—"But I cannot allow an innocent man to suffer for a guilty one. You can't take your brother's place unless you swear that he is innocent, and that you stole the dog."

Negro—"I can't swear to that, Judge, but I am willing to make his crime mine, and suffer in his place, so it don't make no difference."

The Justice finally succeeded in making the faithful brother understand that it did make a difference, and, evidently greatly disappointed, he left the courtroom, and Dan was taken to jail.

MURDER IN HALL COUNTY.—The Air Line Eagle says that on the night of the 19th instant, about twelve miles from Gainesville, a negro woman named Viney Jackson, was brutally murdered by some person, supposed to be the young man who has been living with her in a criminal manner for the last two years. The citizens are active in ferreting out the criminal, and no doubt will succeed.

A bullock was being driven through the streets of West Newton, Penn., recently, when he became unmanageable, gored one man to death and fatally injured another. He then turned into a milliner's shop and made a raid on the fancy colored ribbons, etc. The citizens finally despatched the brute.

Taylor Blow died in St. Louis yesterday. His life was insured in fourteen different companies for a total amount of $117,000. He had done this for the benefit of his creditors.

At Schenectady, a white woman was recently married to a negro from Albany. And the thermometer at 99 degrees. The colored troops fought nobly.

The war in Japan has ended, and leaders in the rebellion are to be tried at Yeddo, and if found guilty, punished.

One Thousand Dollars Reward! ESCAPED, on the evening of the 6th inst., from the South Carolina Penitentiary, where he was detained on a charge of murder, WILLIAM K. TOLBERT.

He is about thirty years of age, five feet ten and a-half inches high; weighs about 170 pounds; fair complexion; sandy hair and whiskers; light blue eyes, with red lids, almond-shaped, closely together; remarkably square shoulders; small feet; with a peculiar utterance of voice.

A reward of ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS will be paid for his apprehension and delivery to me at Columbia. JOHN B. HUBBARD, Chief Constable.

REYNOLDS' IMPROVED METHOD OF CONSTRUCTING Artificial Dentures, Patented December, 1867.

AFTER an extensive use of this important improvement in practice for nearly two years, it is with full confidence urged upon the profession and the public, as fulfilling more thoroughly and satisfactorily than any other method, every indication of rubber teeth. As in this method, rubber teeth are altogether discarded, it is desirable that it should fall especially into the hands of those familiar with gold plate work.

It may not be generally known that they who wear cases of artificial teeth, constructed according to this patent, by Dentists who are not licensees, render themselves liable to the penalty of infringement, as well as the operator.

Office rights will be disposed of and instruction given by letter, or at the operating rooms of Reynolds & Reynolds, where the manipulation may be daily witnessed, and where communications may be addressed.

A Card.—Southern Life Insurance Company, Atlanta, Georgia.

To the People of South Carolina: The above Company was organized in 1866, in consequence of the wholesale forfeiture of Southern policies by Northern companies. The unparalleled success of the enterprise has forced several of these companies to restore their Southern policies, from the fact that they could not operate in our midst without the appearance of honesty.

We keep all our money at home to build up our impoverished country—every dollar of premium being safely invested in the State from which it is derived. The institution is purely Southern, and hence should appeal with great force to the patriotism and sympathy of every Southern heart.

It is not our purpose to make war on other companies, but to exhibit the special advantages offered by this purely Southern Company—founded on patriotism and solid wealth. Its ratio of assets to liabilities—the true test of a company's strength, is second to none on this continent—being nearly 300 to 100.

Whenever and wherever we have presented the claims of this Company, it has not only enlisted the sympathies of our people, but has also secured their hearty co-operation. We have secured 500 policies in South Carolina since the 10th of February. We number among our Directors Gen. Wade Hampton and Col. Wm. Johnston, gentlemen well known to every citizen of South Carolina. We appeal personally to the people of South Carolina to assist in pushing forward this deservedly popular Southern institution.

J. H. MILLER, General Agent Southern Life Insurance Co. B. W. LAWTON, State Agent.

We cheerfully recommend the above Company to the patronage of the citizens of South Carolina.
